

Federal Bar Association

Endorsed by the FBA Senior Lawyers Division and Federal Career Service Division

USE OF THIRD PARTY NEUTRAL TECHNIQUES IN THE CONTEXT OF NATURAL RESOURCE DAMAGE CASES AND OTHER APPLICATIONS

The Industry/Trustee Standing Committee of the Ad-Hoc Industry Natural Resource Management Group in cooperation with the Federal Bar Association will convene a multi-stakeholder seminar to discuss ways to use third party neutral approaches in a variety of environmental contexts including natural resource damage cases under CERCLA, Clean Water Act, Oil Pollution Act and analogous laws in over 40 States.

September 25, 2019

1:00 - 5:00 PM

D.C Bar Building, Potomac Rm.

901 4th Street NW

Washington, DC 20001

David Batson, Expert Consultant, AlterEcho

Barbara J. Goldsmith, Executive Director, Ad-Hoc Industry Natural Resource Management Group and President, Barbara J. Goldsmith & Company LLC

Dana Goodson, Senior Program Manager, Udall Foundation

William Hall, Ph.D., Director, Office of Collaborative Action and Dispute Resolution, U.S. Department of the Interior

Sheila Slocum Hollis, Partner, Duane Morris LLP

Steven Jawetz, Principal, Beveridge & Diamond PC

Steven Miller, Deputy Assistant General Counsel, U.S. Department of Energy

4 CLE Credit Hours Available!

$40 - Non-member, CLE Credit

$35 - Member, CLE Credit

$0 - Observation Only, NO CLE

Register Here!